Confidentiality in the Workplace / Serment de confidentialité en milieu de travail

In Chapter VII entitled Contract of Employment of the Quebec Civil Code, Article 2088 it states:

Art. 2088 The employee is bound not only to carry on his work with prudence and diligence, but also to act faithfully and honestly and not to use any confidential information he may obtain in carrying on or in the course of his work.

These obligations continue for a reasonable time after cessation of the contract, and permanently where the information concerns the reputation and private life of a person.

Confidentiality Statement

I understand that in the course of my employment with International Student Services , I will have access to or be made aware of personal and/or confidential information and/or documents.

I understand I may not to use such personal and/or confidential information and/or documents in an unauthorized manner, and I may not misuse, divulge or subvert such information.

I will adhere strictly to all rules and regulations concerning the appropriate use of such information and materials, the maintain the confidentiality and security of such information and/or and document, as well as, as applicable, signature stamps and computer access procedures.

I understand that I am bound not only to carry out my work with prudence and diligence, but also to act faithfully and honestly.

I understand that these obligations continue even after the end of my employment relationship.

✖✖✖